

Dear Sir,

I am writing to say thank you for the beautiful work you did on my wife's urn.

I lost my wife, of 51-years, December 19th, 2005. She had battled Cancer for over a year. As you can imagine, saying goodbye is one of the hardest things I've had to do. Everyday I miss her, think of her, love her, and live 'til I can be with her again.

That is why I had an urn for two made, so that when I die I can be laid to rest with my wife. We can rest, as we lived, together.

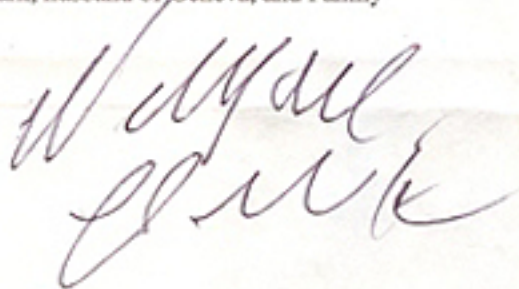

The day after she died I went to pick out her urn. It was hard to do, even with my family around me. I knew what I wanted for Geneva. Kathy Miller, of Eaton-Watson in Perry, suggested that you could make a special box for us.

I never imagined how beautiful it would turn out. The day I picked it up I cried, my children cried, and my grandchildren cried. It was perfect. The urn, my wife, now sits in my bedroom on a stand. I've placed a pink rabbit stuffed animal my grandson got in memory of his grandma, the rabbit shares her name, is her favorite animal, and her favorite color, a photograph of my wife and I, poems about her, and her birth certificate around the box. A tiny memorial to the great love of my life. The memorial made complete by your beautiful urn. The craftsmanship shown in every detail - the poem, the picture, and our names. The greatest compliment I can give is that we all cried.

My family and I just wish to say thank you for the work you did.

Sincerest Thanks,

Wayne D. Clark, husband of Geneva, and Family
